9. INSURANCE

It is obligatory that all participants and members of delegations must effect their own medical insurance and personal trip insurance. The Chinese Karatedo Federation and Asian Karate Federation are taking no liability for these concepts.

The chiefs of the delegations have to sign the enclosed term of responsibility and return this by June 30, 2009.

10. PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT

According to the WKF Kumite Rules Article 2.8, the following protective equipments are COMPULSORY:

- a) WKF approved Karate Mitts (Red and Blue);
- b) WKF approved Shin-Pad and Foot Protector (Red and Blue)
- c) WKF approved female Chest Protector (White); and
- d) Gum Shield

Groin Guards are not mandatory, but if worn, they must be of approved WKF type.

11. ANTI-DOPING

The WKF Anti-doping rules will be complied with strictly during the championship.

12. Media/TV/Video/Camera

Chinese karatedo Association (CKA) have all the rights related to the 9th AKF Senior Championships. Only the persons with the permit of CKA can take professional photos or videos during the competition, and the identification card will be required to check by the staff at the entrance.

The cameras/video cameras with tripod are prohibited in the sports arena.

For amateurs, cameras/videos will be charged 50 Yuan per day or 100 Yuan per three days at the entrance of the competition venue.

For further information on press or media related issues, please contact the organizing committee.

13. GENERAL INFORMATION

Foshan is a prefecture-level city in central Guangdong province, People's Republic of China. The city has jurisdiction over an area of about 3,840 km² and a population of 5.4 million of which 1.1 million reside in the city proper (year 2000 figures).

The town of Foshan is many centuries old. It is famous for its porcelain industry. Now it is the third largest city in Guangdong. The city is relatively affluent when compared to other Chinese cities, and it is home to many large private enterprises. Foshan recently has seen a transformation brought by China's booming economy.
