4th WKF Youth Camp & World Cup

Loutraki, Greece 2011

Welcome

Dear participant,

After three first successful editions, we face in 2011 the 4th edition of the WKF Youth Camp and World Cup. Again in Greece, in a location close to the Athens airport and in a facility, like Loutraki, where the participants are going to find the ideal conditions to fulfil the objective of the Camp, how is training with top world known instructors in a friendly and cosmopolitan atmosphere whilst getting in touch for a week long with the state of the art of the sport of Karate.

Loutraki has an experience of many years in hosting a significant diversity of sporting Youth Camps and consequently the expertise that assures this 4th WKF Youth Camp to be a complete success.

Finally, I would like to thank the Hellenic Karate Federation and the local authorities for their help and support and I am looking forward to welcoming you all personally

Antonio Espinos
WKF President

Loutraki, Greece 2011

City of Loutraki

The Municipality of Loutraki - Perachora belongs to the Prefecture of Corinthia. It was established in 1934, and stems from the restructuring of the former Municipality of Perachora.

The municipality apart from Loutraki and Perachora, it also includes the areas of Isthmia and Pissia. The Municipality covers an area of 19.687 sq. km and has a population of 16.520 inhabitants. The local inhabitants are mainly occupied in the tourism industry, and at the same time in the developing light manufacturing industry, craft industry and agriculture. The local industries are mostly involved in bottling natural mineral water. The Municipality of Loutraki - Perachora is only 85km away from Athens, the capital of Greece, whilst they are linked with a toll highway and a railway. It is also connected through road, railway and sea, with the most important gates of the country (Piraeus and Patra).

The briefing for coach accreditation

The qualification that will be given to the participants in the briefing is “Accredited Coach” and it will entitle to become the coach accreditation at WKF official events. The details for the coach accreditation are included in the attached WKF information letter.

Those who do not get the qualification of “Accredited Coach” in Loutraki will have to get it in the 2011 World Championships before the beginning of competition. After that, next coaches’ accreditation will take place in the relevant briefing and examinations that the WKF will call in 2012.

The fee for attending the briefing and obtaining the level of “Accredited Coach” is 200CHF or 165€. The licence renewal will take place every 3 years. All Accredited Coaches must be holders of the annual WKF ID card which costs 20€. In this occasion, all coaches registered for the briefing in Loutraki will be given, without additional cost, the right to attend the stage conducted the day before the briefing by Con Kassis, Chairman of the WKF Referee Commission.
