PROPOSITIONS:

Individual: cadet, junior and senior category competitions will be run in the cup system with full repechages, EKF rules.

Teams and children's individual competitions will be run in the KO system without repechage.

In the kumite individual competitions in categories with less than 4 contestants, they compete with each other. The organizer is not liable for possible injuries or the competitors' wellbeing, as each club is responsible for their own members' safety.

KUMITE:

Protective gear is required (mouth guards, hand and foot guards, shin protectors, chest protectors).

Cadet, junior and senior kumite last 2 minutes. Kumite for children is 90 seconds.

KATA:

In individual competitions, one competitor may compete in his age, belt and absolute level.

Competitors (born in years 2003 – 2005) will be split into groups of four. Any medals won in these categories will not be added to the total payout.

First level competitors (yellow – orange belt) can perform Taikyoku and Heian katas, and need to know at least two katas, which cannot be repeated twice in a row.

Second level competitors (green – blue belt) can perform Heian katas and need to know at least three katas which can be repeated, but not in sequence.

Second level competitors (green – blue belt) (born 1998-2002) in final can also perform a master kata.

Third level competitors (brown – black belt) (born 2001 – 2002) can perform Heian and Master kata without repetition; competitors born 1998-2000 can perform the master kata only, no repetitions.

Absolute level competitors (born 2003 and younger) can perform Taikyoku and Heian katas, no repetitions allowed.

Absolute level competitors (born 1998-2002) can perform Heian and master katas, no repetitions allowed.

In the team katas, one kata member can be included from the first younger age category.

In the cadet team, junior and senior team competition with bunkai is required.

Mixed teams are allowed (male team - 2 men and 1 woman, or female team - 2 women and 1 man).
