Greetings

We are hosting the 17th Asia Junior & Cadet, U-21 Championships at Okinawa Prefectural Budokan in May 2018. With the cooperation of Okinawa Prefecture, JKF is now preparing this event to welcome all the athletes and officials from all over Asia.

I believe that the 17th Asia Junior & Cadet, U-21 Championships in Okinawa will receive great attention as a preliminary event of Tokyo 2020.

I hope all the athletes gathered here will be able to improve their techniques, and that they will be able to strengthen their mutual friendship and promote international goodwill through this event. I trust that it will lead to world peace.

I will be expecting a great number of people to gather in Okinawa, the birthplace of Karate.

Forewords from The President of WKF

As Karate continues setting its course to make its Olympic debut at the Youth Olympic Games of Buenos Aires 2018, we at the WKF know how important it is to further grow our sport all over the world.

In this new and thrilling landscape for our discipline, the celebration of top underage events has become essential, as we are determined to give athletes more and more opportunities to make their dreams in the sport come true. The 2018 AKF Cadet, Junior & U21 Championships will be the perfect stage, since not only Karate's future stars will have the chance to take the spotlight by winning the continental crown. The event will also be crucial as this tournament is immersed in the process for the qualification to the Youth Olympic Games Buenos Aires 2018.

I would like to take the opportunity to thank the Japan Karatedo Federation and its president Takashi Sasakawa for their support and their audacity in the celebration of this event. After the successful previous editions of this tournament, the AKF Cadet, Junior & U21 Championships reaches Okinawa for a memorable event to be held at the birthplace of our sport. I am sure that the delegations travelling to the iconic Japanese island will enjoy the tradition and legendary scenery of Okinawa, in a competition which will leave its mark in the sport in Asia and around the world.

Antonio Espinós

President of the World Karate Federation

The 17th AKF Cadet, Junior & U21 Championship is one of the most important Karate Championship for all young Karate athletes in Asia, for the year 2018. It is the only Championship in Asia that allow the athletes to win ranking points for the coming Youth Olympic qualification.

I believe the 17th edition of Asian Cadet, Junior & U21 Championship, with the support of Japan Karate Federation and Okinawa Local Government, will be a very successful event.

Further, starting from this edition of the Asian Championship, we have made some changes to not only conform to WKF policies, rules and regulations, but to make the Asian Championship a better Championship. These changes have been communicated to all National Federations in the past few months, and I believe it will contribute positively to the Asian Championship.

Finally, I wish everyone a successful championship and looking forward to meet up with you again in the beautiful island of Okinawa.
