1 Initial Greetings

1.1 President of the European Karate Federation

As Karate continues reaching new heights, we look forward to an anticipated 53rd edition of the EKF Senior Championships. Last year the 2017 European Championships were a sound success in terms of sportsmanship and participation of athletes, with nearly 500 competitors from 43 countries taking part at the event and 17 nations claiming medals in the competition. Now, the spectacular tournament to be celebrated in Novi Sad (Serbia) from May 10th to 13th is expected to build on these achievements and further take Karate to new levels in Europe.

I am convinced that the tournament to gather the elite of European Karate in Novi Sad will radiate the essence, passion, and determination that are synonymous of the first-class events of our sport. The European Championships thrill both athletes and fans alike, and it is a source of pride to see how this event has become such an appealing stage to showcase the best of our sport. In this sense, I would like to thank the Serbian Karate Federation and President Slavoljub Piper for hosting the 2018 edition of the EKF Senior Championships thus demonstrating their support and commitment to the progress of our sport.

On behalf of the European Karate Federation, I would also like to send my best wishes to all the athletes competing in Novi Sad. These Karatekas have shown laudable tenacity and athleticism and they have more than earned the moments of glory which will surely be experienced in Serbia.

Antonio Espinós
President of the European Karate Federation

1.2. President of the Serbian Karate Federation

Dear presidents, athletes and members of the Executive Committee,

It is my honor to welcome you to Serbia, City of Novi Sad, for 53rd European Senior Karate Championships.

Karate is highly appreciated in Serbia and it is one of the most remunerated sports in our country.

Multiethnicity, tolerance and fair play is our motto in life as well as in sport.

I assure you that you will feel as if you were in your own home here in Serbia. We are looking forward to your arrival in Novi Sad. Enjoy everything we can offer you, and we wish that you achieve great results.

Welcome to Serbia and Novi Sad.

Mr. Slavoljub Piper
President of the Serbian Karate Federation

2 Novi Sad

2.1 About Novi Sad

Words and pictures don't do justice to this city; Novi Sad is simply something more and something different. The city is a clash of many different styles, though its architecture is primarily Austro-Hungarian. People usually say that it is very easy to get to know this city, very easy to love it and impossible to forget it. One of the main reasons for this is the hospitable mentality of its citizens; its inhabitants are open-minded, joyful and friendly.

Seen from above, City of Novi Sad reveals itself as a city located in a vast plain, spacious and open to all directions. Fortress of Petrovaradin, a historical site, is situated on the right bank of the River Danube, whereas a tall building of Central Post Office, massive construction of Spens Sports Centre, immense headquarter of Petroleum Industry of Serbia and elegant oval edifice of Banovina (a seat of Government of Autonomous Province of Vojvodina) are situated on the left. What eyes could also perceive are green oases embodied in City parks, with labyrinth of streets and alleys meandering around them and cut across with wide and straight boulevards. Moreover, there is the Danube as an unsymmetrical, potent axe of the City, embraced with long quay and Strand, the most beautiful city beach along the Danube. In addition to that, there are the bridges that Novi Sad once lost, but that are re-built from scratch. And there will be plenty of them, quite soon.

As Novi Sad was proclaimed European Capital of Culture for 2021, Mayor Mr. Miloš Vučević said that he was proud that young people with their energy managed to position Novi Sad high on the map of Europe in the field of youth politics and thanked everyone who contributed to Novi Sad's gaining another European recognition.

In addition to everything mentioned, Novi Sad has been the center of great World and European competitions in many sports, such as the European Wrestling Championships, Tennis FED Cup, World Table Tennis Championships, World Volleyball League, European Karate Championships for Regions, European Karate Championships for Cadets, Juniors and U21 and so on.

3 How to get to the Championships
