1 Initial Greetings

1.1 Head of the host NF

Takashi Sasakawa
President
Japan Karatedo Federation

As the President of the Japan Karatedo Federation, I would like to welcome all the competitors and officials from all over the world. It is indeed a great pleasure to host the Karate 1 Premier League from October 12 to 14, 2018 at the Tokyo Budo-kan.

Karatedo, originated in Japan, has developed as a popular sport in the world, and now Karatedo has been included in the Tokyo Olympics in 2020. I believe the Tokyo Premier League will draw great attention as a precursor of Tokyo 2020.

I hope all the athletes gathered here will be able to demonstrate their fair techniques gained from daily training, and that they will be able to strengthen their mutual friendship and promote international goodwill through this event. I trust that it will lead to the world peace.

I look forward to welcoming as many as possible of you at the Tokyo Premier League.

2 Introduction

The Karate1-Premier League is the most important league event in the world of Karate. It comprises of a number of the most prominent Karate competitions and endeavours to bring together the best Karate athletes in the world in an open Championships of unprecedented scale and quality.

Initiated in 2011, the 2018 edition is formed by seven events being held in the cities of Paris, Dubai, Rotterdam, Rabat, Istanbul, Berlin and Tokyo, thus stating Karate's impact all around the world and its global scale. The city of Tokyo hosts a Karate 1-Premier League event for the first time.

At the end of the season, the champions of each category are presented with the "Grand Winners" award. In order to be eligible to receive the "Grand Winners" award, competitors have to participate in at least 4 events in 2 continents of the season.

3 WKF Approved Items

The Karate 1-Premier League complies with the highest level of presentation. In order to guarantee the correct delivery of the event, and to ensure the suitable quality of the tournament, exclusively the following brands are WKF Approved for use in the 2018 Karate 1-Premier League Season.

➤ Currency Exchange

At least twenty major currencies can be exchanged for yen at Narita Airport's currency exchange centers, open from 6:00AM until the last flight arrives.

US dollars and some other major currencies can be changed at city banks or any large post offices in Tokyo. Bank exchange rates vary slightly. Banks are open 9:00 - 15:00 on weekdays. Post offices can change money from 9:00-16:00.

Changing traveler's checks should be no problem at banks and major hotels. Some larger stores may also be able to change them.

➤ Cash and Credit Cards

Cash can be carried in Japan without anxiety. You will need cash for train/bus/taxi fares, admission to museum and smaller dining spots and stores.

Major credit cards are widely accepted.

➤ Consumption Tax

Consumption tax (VAT) is 8%, and usually added at the cash register.

Some large department stores may be able to offer a refund.

HEALTH

➤ Drinking Water

Tap water is safe to drink anywhere in Japan. Mineral water including major imported brands can be easily obtained from supermarkets, convenience stores and other similar places.

➤ Inoculations

No inoculations required for entering Japan from anywhere around the world
Hospitals

➤ Hospitals

Medical systems and facilities in Japan are well established so that you can expect to receive a high standard of medical treatment, should you have a problem with your health during your stay.
