The unit of Japanese currency is yen. Coins are available in denominations of 1, 5, 10, 50, 100 and 500 yen and bank notes in denominations of 1,000, 2,000, 5,000 and 10,000 yen. The smallest form of currency is the 1 yen coin, and the largest form of currency is the 10,000 yen bill. The 5 yen coin and 50 yen coin are rare worldwide in that they have holes in the middle of them. Please note that the values of all coins and bills excluding the 5 yen coin are written in Arabic numerals. Only the 5 yen coin has no Arabic numerals on it.

The 1,000 yen bill and 100 yen coin are used often. In addition to being accepted by many vending machines, the 1,000 yen bill makes your shopping go smoothly at the cash register. In addition, the 100 yen coin is the most widely-used coin in areas with automated installments such as coin-operated lockers and washing machines.

Financial services and Banking hours

Regular banking hours are Monday to Friday from 9:00 to 15:00. All banks are closed on Saturday, Sunday and national holidays.

Also you may withdraw money with major credit cards or international cash card in Japan Post Bank ATMs or ATMs at major convenience stores. ATM marked with a Plus symbol will accept automated banking cards from outside Japan.

Major credit cards are accepted in most business establishments. The Japanese Yen has a favorable exchange rate. Most shops and restaurants will accept major international credit cards e.g. Visa, MasterCard, American Express Card, Diners Club, but no Euro Card is accepted in Japan; but it is recommended to visit the nearest major bank to change it to CASH for your convenience.

Taxes

GST(8 %) is collected in the entire country for all services and products.

The stores used to be required to show the after-tax prices; however, since the increase of GST in 2014, some shops are now also displaying pre-tax prices.

Note that at many shops and malls, it is necessary to first pay the full price (including GST) at the cashier and then obtain a refund at a customer service desk.
